

promised but it has not been discovered, although diligent search has been made, so probably it is not extant.

This, the eighth series, is brought to a close with a list of original documents relating to the invasion of Canada, as far as could be collected from different sources, and in most instances it is stated where they are to be found.

F. C. WURTELE,
Hon. Librarian.