

Renewing & Reserving Books Online

Here is an overview of how to reserve and renew books online through the Morrin Centre's online catalogue: <https://16616.rmwebopac.com/>

Both processes require that you sign into the Morrin Centre catalogue through the sign-in button on the upper right hand of the page. Your username is the barcode number on your Morrin Centre membership card. Your pin is the last four digits of your barcode number.

The image shows two screenshots of the Morrin Centre website. The top screenshot displays the homepage with a search bar and navigation menu. A red arrow points to the 'SIGN IN' button in the top right corner. The bottom screenshot shows the 'Sign in to the Library' page, which includes a login form with fields for 'Username' and 'PIN', and a 'Sign in' button. Text on the page explains that signing in authorizes access to the library web site and provides benefits like viewing checked-out items and circulation history. It also notes that changes to the Book Bin will be saved and retained for the user.

TO RENEW A BOOK:

Once you are signed in, you will be brought to the circulation page for your account. (Photo below). There are three tabs:

- Checked out (which lists "checked out" books)
- Circulation History (which lists the books that you have borrowed in the past)
- Reserves (which lists the books you have on hold/on reserve)

Under the "Checked out" tab, just click the boxes for the books that you would like to renew, then click the "Renew selected items" button. A message will pop up to let you know that your message has been sent to the library and that the book will be renewed by staff.

If you are elsewhere in the library catalogue and need to get back to the renewal/reserve space again, go to your name in the upper right-hand corner and click on "circulation info" in the dropdown menu.

TO RESERVE A BOOK:

Members need to be signed into the Morrin Centre catalogue to put a book on reserve through the online system (see above).

Once signed in, search the catalogue to find the book that you would like to reserve and click on the book. (If you are in your account, click on the Morrin square to get back to the search bar). Click on the title of the book to get to the detailed listing of the book, which provides more information about the book, including its status:

Note: Cast out of the royal court by Eleanor of Aquitaine, deemed too coarse and rough-hewn for marriage or courtly life, seventeen-year-old Marie de France is sent to England to be the new prioress of an impoverished abbey, its nuns on the brink of starvation and beset by disease. At first taken aback by the severity of her new life, Marie finds focus and love in collective life with her singular and mercurial sisters. In this crucible, Marie steadily supplants her desire for family, for her homeland, for the passions of her youth with something new to her: devotion to her sisters, and a conviction in her own divine visions. Marie, born the last in a long line of women warriors and crusaders, is determined to chart a bold new course for the women she now leads and protects. But in a world that is shifting and corroding in frightening ways, one that can never reconcile itself with her existence, will the sheer force of Marie's vision be bulwark enough? Equally alive to the sacred and the profane, Matrix gathers currents of violence, sensuality, and religious ecstasy in a mesmerizing portrait of consuming passion, aberrant faith, and a woman that history moves both through and around. Lauren Groff's new novel, her first since Fates and Furies, is a defiant and timely exploration of the raw power of female creativity in a corrupted world.
